

The 8 February, 2011.

FLEXIBILITY AND SECURITY IN THE CONTEXT OF THE CRISIS AND RECOVERY

SPAIN

Héctor Torres Laguna

REASONS FOR UNEMPLOYMENT IN SPAIN

Economic situation

- Deficiencies in our national productive structure.
- High external deficit
- Lack of competitiveness

Spanish labour market

- Specific aspects of the Spanish labour market
- Insufficient implementation of reforms
- Collective negotiations

Weakness of the Spanish labour market

- Extreme sensibility of Spanish labour market

REFORMS IMPLEMENTED

- Reform labour market - Law 35 /2010, 17 September 2010 (RDL 10/2010, 16 June 2010)

Objectives

- Reduce the duality of the Spanish labour market
 - Enhancing internal flexibility in companies
 - Stimulate companies to hire a specific group of employees
-
- Reform social security system - Economic and social agreement of 2 February 2011

TEMPORARY CONTRACTS

- Unnecessary time limit → 3 years
- Places more restrictions on succession of contracts
- Increase costs of the extinction of temporary contracts

Progressive increase from 8 to 12 days salary per working year:

- ✓ 8 days for contracts signed before 31/12/2011
- ✓ 9 days for contracts signed after 01/01/2012
- ✓ 10 days for contracts signed after 01/01/2013
- ✓ 11 days for contracts signed after 01/01/2014
- ✓ 12 days for contracts signed after 01 /01/2015

PERMANENT CONTRACTS

- Normal dismissal → 45 days per year
- Objective dismissal → 20 days per year
- Objective criteria → clarify
- Individual and collective dismissal → reform is insufficient

MORE FLEXIBILITY

INTERNAL FLEXIBILITY

ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL AGREEMENT- 2 FEBRUARY 2011

Reform social security system

- Normal retirement at 67 – career 37 years
- Retirement at 65 – career 38.5 years
- Early retirement at 63 - career 33 years
- In case of company in crisis, retirement at 61 – career 33 years

CONCLUSIONS

- More ambitious and take far reaching measures necessary
- Link between salary and productivity/results of company
- Quality of work and employment goes hand in hand with economic performance
- Further actions → flexicurity